LGBTQA+ IN NEBRASKA

LGBTQA+ is often used to describe the diverse community of people who are not heterosexual and cisgender.

- Lesbian: A woman who is romantically and/or sexually attracted to other women.
- Gay: An umbrella term for the community.
- Bisexual: The romantic and/or sexual orientation of those who are attracted to people of multiple genders.
- Pansexual: The romantic and/or sexual orientation of those who are attracted to people regardless of their gender.
- Transgender: Someone who does not identify with the gender they were assigned to at birth.
- Queer: A term for those who do not identify as heterosexual or cisgender but do not identify explicitly with another term included in LGBTQA+.
- Asexual: The sexual orientation of those who do not experience sexual attraction to other people.
- Aromantic: Someone who does not experience romantic attraction to other people.
- Heterosexual: The romantic and/or sexual orientation of those who are attracted to people of a different gender from themselves.
- Cisgender: Someone who identifies with the gender they were assigned at birth.
- Nonbinary: Denoting or relating to a gender that is not defined in terms of traditional binary oppositions such as man and woman.

COMMUNITY EMERGENCY RESOURCES

LGBTQA+ people have the same rights to safety as heterosexual people. If you or someone else needs emergency police or medical assistance, call 911.
